INTRODUCTORY

2

OLD Father Time has been here again and at last, after a year of peace and rest, has forced us to take up our pens and get to work. Such a disgrace was undreamed of in the sunny days of our freshman years, but "thus have the mighty fallen."

In this, its second volume, The Alphean is presented to the school and its friends as the result of much conscientious labor on the part of those to whom its editing was intrusted. In the arrangement of the material and in the selection of illustrations, our best efforts have been directed toward making this annual interesting alike to teachers, students, and friends. If, in our columns, you may deem us over presumptuous, we wish to state that all references have been made "with malice toward none," and that in all good will we would have you laugh with us. Though most difficult has been our task we have shouldered our guns and met reverses manfully, and now with many a patronizing smile we appear on the griddle of your criticisms, fondly hoping that previous publications will have so degenerated your tastes that even this may seem palatable.

Who gave sixteen of the best years of her life to the Springfield High School

March, 1888 — October, 1904

She deboted her energies and gave her strength to further the interests of her pupils.

She was among the foremost teachers of mathematics in the country.

She possessed the power of personal magnetism to a high degree, and won her pupils' esteem and affection.

A loyal, devoted friend to every boy and girl who came under her guidance, she incited to best endeabor and to the mastery of all difficulties.

Her influence will remain with us always—a lasting possession.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It is a difficult task that falls to my lot. A Senior Class History? Perhaps a better name would be the "History of a Paradox." We learned some time ago that a limit was a fixed quantity, but just notice how we have changed in the last four years! But then it is something to have seen the limit. Taken as a whole, we are a great class, and, although we have our drawbacks, such as Geer and Robbins, we must at least be commended for the illustrious examples we have set for other classes not to follow.

Taken as a collection of curiosities we have the Art Museum "backed" to Baltimore; and if my readers will kindly borrow a microscope they may be able to recognize some of us as we pass into view. For instance, there is "Pete" Mitchell, our renowned basketball manager and one time Recorder editor, the man who helped to make Milwaukee famous; there is Besse, our famous athlete and class gossip; Pezzini ("The Silent"); Battey, of football fame; together with such girls as Miss Samble, of our girls' basketball team, Miss Seymour, whose words and acts are carefully copied for use in the Kappa; Miss Tait, our second Maude Adams, and the Orchard girls, without whom, that beautiful hamlet would seem like a "Deserted Village," as it were. I might go on and fill this book with the records, sayings, and misdemeanors of my classmates, but I must be brief.

When we entered school as Freshmen we ran the school (or tried to, at least Besse did). Tiring of this fast life we steadied down and faced our "exams," with the result that the Faculty began to hold out hopes for our future existence. In our Sophomore year we grew more bold and important; "Hank" Marsh took a sudden interest in Geometry (Room I), and Tifft began to wear vivid clothes. (We recovered.) The later years of our school life have been spent in making marks for ourselves in the local papers and in the office, but time has rolled on and soon we shall be marked no more.

Several events, however, have happened during our sojourn which will have to be recorded in the book of "Unrevealed Mysteries"; although one phenomenon which puzzled the authorities for some time has just been explained by the famous detective Sure Lock Homes, after days and nights of stupendous labor on his part. Regularly at 8.40 A. M., a series of ear-splitting explosions would take place, which every one believed to be a cheap automobile stuck in the mud, but which were finally proved, by the expert, to be caused by Buxton's brain, beginning to think.

Nevertheless the class are all good old stand-bys; they'll stand by and watch others work at any time, and will also demand certain seats in Assembly Hall and will strive for such against all comers. But we are soon to part—perhaps never to meet again—and the question is, "What is to become of us all?" Of course it is generally understood that Howard will become President of the United States, Holmes will become a dispenser of libraries, Edgerton will lead the "Simple Life" at Monte Carlo, some of our girls will—er—but leave that to them, and as for the rest of our illustrious class, they are yet to be heard from.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF "1905"

21

WE, the members of the class of Nineteen Hundred and Five, of the Springfield High School, in the County of Hampden, State of Massachusetts, conceiving the approaching end of our existence as a student body in the aforesaid High School, and being in perfect health and sanity of mind, do make and ordain this, our last will and testament, in manner and form as following:—

First—We give and bequeath to the heir first of succession, namely, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Six, our noble dignity and profound wisdom as Seniors, and the consciousness of being first and foremost in all affairs of the school, with the sincere hope that they may bear this advanced estate with propriety and decorum and fulfill their duties unflinchingly, even as we have done. Furthermore, we turn over to their use and possession, rooms Nos. 16, 17, 19, and 21, with the beloved and endearing instructors in charge of said rooms. May said instructors experience no worse treatment at their hands than was their fate at ours! And, furthermore, our seats in Assembly Hall, all books belonging properly to the Senior Class, and all other appurtenances thereto. Lastly, we caution the aforesaid class of Nineteen Hundred and Six, that in the relinquishment of the editing and management of the High School publication known as "The Recorder" to the class of the year Nineteen Hundred and Seven, they sufficiently admonish the last named class, so that the betterment in the condition of said publication, accomplished during the past year, may be maintained and advanced if possible; and that they keep ever a parental eye on said class, as is their duty as Seniors.

Second—To the class of Nineteen Hundred and Seven we grant our best wishes and fondest hopes; the sacred charge of "The Recorder," Vol. XIX., to the publication of which they should bend all their time and efforts; with the advice that they in no wise neglect their dignity in their advent as Juniors and upperclassmen.

- Third—To the class of Nineteen Hundred and Eight, we give the well meant advice that the members thereof get not swollen heads upon the occasion of their becoming Sophomores; and further that they brag not, "crib" not, but do their duty.
- Fourth—To the prospective class of Nineteen Hundred and Nine we grant our tenderest blessing, with the sound advice that its happiness will be dependent upon its goodness; that its members listen faithfully to their teachers, wander not in the unexplored regions of the basement, learn not the way to the office, which is the way of the wicked; and that they be silent and meek at all times.
- Fifth—In regard to all the members of the school, we beg with our dying breath that they ever remember the Blue and the White; that they maintain its sacred honor and be ever loyal to it, that they have their fun but forget not their duty, for in the performance thereof rests the standard of our school.
- Sixth—To the beloved members of the faculty we grant our hearty good will and grateful remembrance of the past. May our severing of connection break not their friendship with us. Furthermore, to all who have in any way been connected or concerned with our welfare and success we give our thankful recognition.
- Seventh—To the school in general, and especially to the new Senior Class, we intrust the care of any possible flunkies, that is, any members of us who may be fated to spend another year in the dear old walls. Be kind and merciful to them, and keep them ever in remembrance of us.
- Eighth—To our executors: Let there be a public auction after our decease in order to dispose of all private property belonging to us, including trots, ponies, stolen lunch tickets, misappropriated books, and all other odds and ends acquired by us during our sojourn.
- Ninth—To all posterity: Honor thy teachers and thy happiness will be great; skip not "Gym," nor acquire unto yourselves D's or E's, for they are like millstones hung about the neck and will shorten thy days among the living; study thy Greek and thy Latin and refer not to translations for aid; be ever ready for a fight and make it hot while it lasteth; shun all intercourse with our Superintendent and all blue-coated individuals.

Remember these our final admonitions, and thy prosperity will be great, and thou shalt reap the harvest in due time. Let these be our last words and advices; let us die in peace, unmolested, and with the good will of all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Five, do here, to this, our last will and testament, set our hand and seal, this first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and five. Amen.

CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIVE.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

PLACE—Springfield Jail. High School Section. Guard conducting visitors through the building.

- Guard. "Yes, this section is devoted entirely to the High School, and this row from cells to the Junior class, and it is surprising to note, that, of all four classes, the percentage from this one exceeds that from any other.
- "In this first cell is Pirnie, the minstrel star, who would persist in reaching the lunch counter five minutes before the rest of the school, with the result that recess was delayed ten minutes each day till more buns could be sent for. He was locked up for the good of the cause.
- "E. P. Caldwell occupies this next cell, confined because of his mania for laughing gas and bottomless boats, which, in his dreams, he manufactures and constructs, and talks about when awake.
- "Across from him is Ellis, one of the most dangerous representatives of the class. He has been here off and on during his school course and I presume will keep it up in years to come. His special offense, this time, was counterfeiting a lunch ticket.
- "What's that? You didn't know that we kept animals here? Well, I don't wonder at your mistake. Those are not animals, however, they are Kendrick, Peirce, and the Lombard twins. They were placed here on account of several complaints which were entered at the offices of the truant officer and board of health.
- "This cell on your right contains R. Fuller Mulligan (some think it ought to be I. S. Fuller), a most vicious character. He was caught in the act of trying to commit suicide by talking. He will be kept here until improvement sets in.

"This row of cells contains the arrests for disturbance of the peace, the most notorious characters among them being H. Wm. Smith and W. Herbert Rhodes, who continually disturbed the peace of Room 10, and Mather, who had so many offenses against him that the authorities classified them collectively and put him in here.

"These are the majority of our worst cases, but we — What's that? No, we do not imprison the girls here, although I have heard it said that there are some trying cases in the class, particularly those girls who keep certain of the boys from entering their respective rooms until the very last minute.

"You must go? Well, any other time you care to visit us, I shall be glad to show you the rest of the section. Not at all. Good day."

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

NE evening as I was sitting in my cosy little attic room, reading the July number of the "Recorder," with my feet hung about 45° upon the bookcase, my door was suddenly flung open and a wild-eyed, half-frantic individual rushed in and collared me. I thought at first that I was in the hands of some escaped lunatic, or a Pnyx man out after "ads," but on looking closer I perceived the person to be no less than His Majesty, the editor of these "Æsop's Fables."

"Sit down," said I, motioning him to a large, unoccupied space upon the floor, "and kindly elucidate to me the meaning of all this war dance of yours." Imagine my astonishment and dismay when he said, "I want you to write me a 35,000-word article on the members of your class, and I want it right away." Why! I nearly had heart failure! However, my tears and protests were ineffectual, and he left me only upon my promising to "try it, anyhow."

Such a business! Well, there's no time like the present, thought I, so I rushed down street, purchased three bottles of ink and a writing desk, and then returned. While on the car an idea came to me to use my powers of farsightedness and prophesy a little about the members of my class. With this in view, I took down a school directory and, beginning at the '07 list, started in to scratch foolscap.

Well, about the first thing I ran up against was Ball. Now, wouldn't that crack a pane of glass? However, I waded past and was beginning to feel hopeful once more when I struck the Bishop-Blake combination. "My eyes!" as "Brant" Royce would say. Think of trying to foretell anything about that pair of canary birds! It was all right about Blake, for I hear he intends to demonstrate shaving soap, but, as for Bishop, I guess the only thing he could ever become is an incubator. When I had glanced on in the list and had seen such names as Cowan, Divilish, Haley, and Slavensky, I could proceed no further. My spirits had received "A Frightful Frost," so to speak. As a last resort I thought I would begin at the tail end of the list, and perhaps my luck would change, but no; lost in the "Woods" in "Winter" might have passed, but when I came to two Wilburs in a bunch, I collapsed and was utterly incapable of continuing.

But who could have blamed me? Did you ever see such a conglomerated aggregation of antiquated fossils before in all your life? Why, even now, as I think of it, I can hear Rising murmur, "Oh! now stop, you're only Chaffe-ing." I can see Williams and Lincoln with their Mellin's food cans under their coats, and Jerome Young coming down the hall with those "spats" of his, buckled, strapped, nailed, glued, tied, and cemented to his shoes. "Howe" delightful it would have been if, instead of having to turn my evenings into a sort of "Doubleday" on this job, I could have "Beach"-ed my ship of thought on the shore of some "Wood"-ed isle and have become "King" of my own "Cocoanut Tree."

This effort of mine reminds me of a "Noble" youth, who, when asked one day in class, to spell Schlesinger's name, got as far as "Schlitz," and then sat down; so, before some ambitious relic bumps my elbow too "severely," I will "Flagg" this train and disappear.

TECH GOSSIP

(By a Tech Man)

HEN the editor of this publication requested me to write something about Tech, I felt myself so totally incapable that I begged him to allow me the liberty of copying my lines after some great literary work. For this reason, therefore, I have written after the style of Lincoln's Dedication spiel,—just forty years after, to be exact. Like Lincoln, also, though I may herewith scatter the tacks of pointed reminiscence upon the carpet of domestic felicity, yet I bear "malice toward none."

When I first started in to write this I said to myself, "Here's where I rub it all over C. C. J., who's been owing me a quarter for about a year," but imagine my surprise and delighted disgust, therefore, when that worthy paid me the following day (he must have heard about it), and so I couldn't, in justice, roast him then.

Thus I will pass him by and hop on Malc' Arthur, made famous by those immortal lines, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hands of the Springfield police."

Speaking of "Art" suggests Underwood, 'o6. Did you notice how uneasy the faculty got when Roy reached Crown Point that morning in chapel? I never say "chapel" without thinking of the "fossil," and how he alighted, or rather happened off, at Brookfield instead of Springfield. He knew there was a "field" around somewhere, but he couldn't just place it.

By the way, have you read the latest in fiction? "How to grow tall," by Smith, '06, and "How to receive throwdowns," by Blake, of the same class, who is the greatest living authority on the subject, with Wight, '05, a close second.

The force of habit is terrible, isn't it? Now, there's Phelon. One day when "Pheely" was at a party, the hostess, who was serving both tea and coffee, asked him what he would have. "Make it a Manhattan," he answered, absent-mindedly. I expect when Ray goes to the altar to be married (don't blush, Ray) that he will stand on one foot and feel for the rails with the other. You knew he was bitten by a dog, didn't you? You didn't? Why, when Ray was coming home from the Brewery, where the class had been studying fermentation, a dog suddenly ran into the road and bit him. Well, sir, that dog died the next day of alcoholic poisoning, after having a hard struggle with delirium tremens.

While we are on the subject, I must mention "Art's" illicit still in the Winchester; but for my part I never could see where the "still" came in, as it always sounded to me like a cross between a boiler factory and a steam riveter in operation. It was still once though when "Art" was sick, but then I only stayed a minute, because it made my eyes water so.

I almost forgot McCann of the Dem-o-crat-ic City Committee. You know, election night "Butch" went into the "Capitol City" and hollered to the waiter, "Say, have you got any toast?" On receiving a reply in the affirmative, he said, "Well, give me some; I'm a dropped egg, and I want to sit down." Then Ginger led him back to the Union.

Nor must we stop simply with our great men. I could not speak loyally of Tech without mentioning our Athletics. Yes, athletically speaking, our star is beginning to appear on the horizon, and you will do well to watch it, as it is destined to rise still more. Let us offer the glad hand, as Nervy Nat would say, to Scott, Billings, and Chisholm, although Chisby is probably too busy scratching to accept our hands. Four men won the much coveted "S" on the gridiron last fall, Highton, Dodge, Lombard, and Campbell, and were looking for more next season. In the crew and track we have been well represented, and expect to be more so this year. Thus practically all branches of High School athletics are recognizing the availability of Tech men; and it is rumored that even "Gladys" Lewis and "Fat" O'Connell have the athletic fever, and are sometimes seen in the misfit class on the gym. floor.

As a limited space forbids my mentioning everybody, I have touched on only a few well known characters, and if any find themselves not so classed, they may take it out by having the "Ha, ha," on the celebrities.

I would like to say in closing that I am contemplating a two years' vacation in Europe, and if any here mentioned have taken offense at my prattling, they may file their complaints at my office and I will set in motion the proper investigations upon my return.

IMPORTANT SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE YEAR

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB DANCE

The event which began the social life of the school year, and which was also the most important in the fall term, was the annual assembly of the Boys' Glee Club, given in Memorial Hall, November 19, proving to be a complete success in every respect. The program provided for twenty dances, for which music was furnished by the Philharmonic Orchestra. The patronesses were Mrs. William Orr, Mrs Donald Pirnie, Mrs. John F. Ahern, Miss Florence Whiting, and Miss Marion C. Murphy; arrangements being in charge of a committee consisting of H. A. Bidwell, '05 (Chairman), G. E. Stock, '05, and G. N. Messer, '06.

THE SENIOR DANCE

The class of 1905, which is noted for having sudden and peculiar inspirations, conceived the scheme of giving a class dance to prevent certain assessments. Accordingly a dance was given, being held in Apollo Hall on the evening of December 9. The patronesses were Mrs. William Orr, Miss Marion C. Murphy, Miss Florence Whiting, and Miss Sawyer of the Technical High School. The Committee in charge was Louis Tifft (Chairman), Arthur Besse, Lawrence B. Robbins, Miss Helen Denman, and Miss Amy Morse.

ALPHA DELTA SIGMA ASSEMBLY

Zeta Chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma Fraternity held its annual Christmas Assembly on the evening of December 26, in Apollo Hall, being attended by about sixty couples. The patronesses were Mrs. L. W. Besse, Mrs. W. A. Lincoln, Mrs. R. W. Ellis, and Miss Marion C. Murphy, and the dance was in charge of Lawrence B. Robbins, Robert M. Rising, and Frank C. Wells, as managers.

GAMMA DELTA PSI ASSEMBLY

Kappa Chapter of Gamma Delta Psi Fraternity held its annual Christmas Assembly in Apollo Hall, on the evening of December 27, and was attended by about seventy-five couples. The patronesses were Mrs. William G. Wheat, Mrs. Edmund K. Baker, Mrs. Oliver Marsh, Mrs. Eliphalet T. Tifft, Mrs. Edmund H. Smith, and Miss Florence M. Whiting. The managers were Theodore R. Smith and Arthur E. Marsh.

SENIOR CLASS FAIR

Following the precedent established last year, the class of 1905 gave a fair in the girls' Gymnasium on Thursday and Friday evenings, March 2 and 3. The event was in every way a success, materially increasing the funds and the spirits of the class, and furnishing, for all who were present, excellent opportunities for a social good time.

A general committee consisting of Arthur E. Marsh (Chairman), Sidney H. Lincoln, Frank Lange, Miss Abbie Ferris, Miss Ida M. Corwin, and Miss Margaret Robinson, with James A. Clarke and Malcolm U. Arthur from the Technical High School, were in charge, each one of these being chairman of a special sub-committee chosen from the class.

The entertainment of the first evening opened with the fair, which, like a modern circus, afforded innumerable chances for spending all kinds of money (if one had it). From an X-Ray table, fortune booth, and shooting gallery one escaped only to meet with new terrors in the form of a grab-bag, breakfast food offering, and "Jim the Boy Artist's" enticing "3 looks for a nickel" exhibit. An excellent supper was served from 6 to 7 (which attracted many on account of the service given). During an intermission Mr. Eugene Hill presented several selections from Dickens, Irving, and other writers to a highly appreciative audience.

On Friday evening the fair was closed by an auction of the "left-overs" in which "Sid" Lincoln ruined a good thing endeavoring to sell out "below cost." As soon as this was accomplished the floor was cleared and the Orchestra furnished music for a program of ten dances ending the 1905 Senior Fair.

KAPPA PHI—ALPHA DELTA SIGMA ASSEMBLY

On the evening of April 14, 1905, Kappa Phi Sorority and Alpha Delta Sigma Fraternity established a precedent by uniting in giving a Dramatics and Dance, in Apollo Hall, which proved an entire success. The dramatics, a sketch entitled "My Lord in Livery," preceded the dance and was very well presented. The cast was as follows:—

Lord Thirlmere ( H. M. S. Phlegethon ),

Spiggott, an old family butler,

Hopkins, a footman,

Robert, a page,

Sibyl Amberley, daughter of Sir George Amberley,

Laura, Her Friends {

Rose, Her Friends }

Rose, Marguerite Scott

The scene was laid in the sitting room in the house of Sir George Amberley in England.

The dance program contained fifteen numbers. The patronesses of the evening were Mrs. Lyman W. Besse, Mrs. William C. Scott, Mrs. William C. Morse, Mrs. William A. Lincoln, Mrs. Charles L. Chapin, Miss Florence M. Whiting, and Miss Emilie de Rochemont.

GLEE CLUB MINSTRELS

The second annual minstrel show of the Boys' Glee Club was given by them in the Hall, on April 18. Though the performance was limited to one evening, instead of two, as last year, the event was as much, if not more, of a success. The Club was very fortunate in having three of last year's "ends" to help them out and also Lambert Murphy, whose splendid voice was half the entertainment. The specialties and songs as presented are given complete in another part of this annual.

THE FRENCH PLAY

This year has witnessed a great many successful ventures of a social nature which have been, of themselves, first endeavors of their kind. Foremost among these was the French Play, a comedy, "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme" by Molière, which was given by students from the French classes of the school, in the Hall, on the evening of April 26. The affair was one which required a great deal of work and rehearsal, and the way in which the parts were taken off speaks highly for the actors and for the instructors who had the play in charge. A cut together with the cast of characters, as in the minstrel show, is given on another page of this annual.

GAMMA DELTA PSI DRAMATICS AND DANCE

"Mr Bob," a comedy in two acts, was the very laughable presentation, given at the annual spring Dramatics and Dance of Gamma Delta Psi Fraternity, on April 28, in Apollo Hall. The play is one that affords much amusement, and, as acted by the cast, the humor of the situation was well brought out. Though the entire cast was well played, George Graves in the character of Robert Brown, a law clerk, deserves special mention. Following the Dramatics, as usual, was the dance consisting of a program of eighteen numbers and which was enjoyed by many.

The cast of the play was as follows:—

Philip Royson,
Robert Brown,
Jenkins, a butler,
Rebecca Luke, a maiden lady,
Katherine Rogers, her niece,
Marion Bryant, Katherine's friend,
Patty, a maid,

Henry A. Bidwell George A. Graves Harry Marsh William Wright Louis E. Tifft Fred G. Howe J. Branning Royce

The scenes are both laid at the breakfast table at Tresham.

The patronesses for the dance were Mrs. Eliphalet T. Tifft, Mrs. Charles A. Royce, Mrs. William G. Wheat, Mrs. Oliver Marsh, Mrs. Edmund H. Smith, and Miss Jennie M. Joslin. The evening was in charge of Arthur E. Marsh, Theodore R. Smith, and George A. Graves as managers.

As we go to press, of course, before the affair takes place, we can but mention the final and most important social event of the year, "The Prom." As far as is learned the "prom" this year bids fair to equal if not excel those of previous years and can be looked forward to with great expectancy. Yet many of us do not altogether realize what it means. For some, perhaps, it is the last time they will meet in a social gathering pertaining to the school, and for all who graduate it represents the entrance to a new life. So while we enjoy ourselves in the pleasures it brings, let us not forget the motto it signifies—"Finishing, yet Beginning."

"To be, or not to be?" seems to have been the leading question in regard to our Lyceum this season. It had declined rapidly in previous years, and, as a result, there was absolutely nothing for a basis to start upon this year. Yet, with or rather without this as a nucleus, an effort was made to revive this side of our school activity, and, although rather late in the season, meetings were finally started, and were held on Tuesday evenings. Though empty seats were greatly in predominance at these meetings, many expressions of hope for a continuance and growth of the good work were given by those present.

There was a great deal of difficulty this season in securing a sufficient number of speakers for each evening, and, on this account, most of the meetings have had to be omitted, but there should be no such dearth, and would not be, if every pupil who could speak would feel it his duty to do so.

Public speaking and debating are two of the best institutions in a school, and from them a pupil can derive much help and preparation for a business life, and it is a deplorable fact that the Springfield High School Lyceum should be left to founder or perish.

Let us all take it upon ourselves to bring the Lyceum to a level even higher than before, and stand ready to offer our support at all times.

A FEW WORDS

ON OUR ATHLETICS

MR. DAVID W. POLLARD, Physical Director and Coach.

The season of athletics in S. H. S., which is soon to terminate, has been, without a doubt, the most successful in the history of the school. Athletics, with us, have come to mean more in the last few years, than formerly, the spirit of enterprise and a strong school spirit having blossomed out, and not to die. Better, and thus winning teams have been the result on the field, bard, conscientious practice and a desire to keep up in one's studies resulting outside the game.

As the standards of the teams have been raised, and the teams have thus grown stronger, the schedules have become harder, and, greatly to the credit of our athletes, it can be said, that they have earned their way to a standing equal to that of any school in the country. Many and beneficial have been the results. There has been little or no tendency on the part of the fellows to drop their places on a team because of low standing in studies, but rather has the tendency been to study the harder, and, with the raising of their standard in school work, retain their position on the team.

Perhaps best of all has been the moral influence. Our athletes have shown themselves, by their actions in contests, to be perfect gentlemen in every way possible, and have also taken it upon themselves to do conscientious training, and, in so doing, to avoid many vices which would otherwise make them unworthy of the name of "athletes,"

So, in conclusion, we wish the athletes of S. H. S. all the glory they deserve. May they never take a backward step, may their victories be many, and may they ever uphold the unblemished honor of our school!

FOOTBALL TEAM.

FOOTBALL

Manager, SIDNEY H. LINCOLN, '05.

CAPTAIN BATTEY.

That the football season of the past year eclipses all others in the history of the school is an undeniable fact. The playing of the team throughout the entire season was of the highest order, both in carrying the pigskin down the field and in stopping the rushes of their many times heavier opponents.

They established a record both in contests won and in the unprecedented fact that they were not scored upon during the whole season. But the greatest of all memories left behind them, both on the home gridiron and abroad, is the gentlemanly way in which every player, as well as the team as a whole, conducted themselves while on the field of battle. They set a standard of sportsmanship which has been gradually looked up to by outside teams until it now stands on the highest plane, and old S. H. S. is recognized everywhere as a true and fair sport in all kinds of athletic contests.

The playing this season was excellent, the players realizing that team work counts, and, as a result, while there occurred some exceptional features, no one deserves special mention. Though many of the men were new and unused to the game as it is played with us, nevertheless, when the players lined up for the first game, Captain Battey headed a team of iron. At the close of the season it was the same, with not one score against them, a team of iron. With this record to spur them on, our future teams should also be able to review their past and say with a glad smile, "Eureka."

BASKETBALL

Manager, ARTHUR K. MITCHELL, '05.

CAPTAIN CUNLIFFE.

In Basketball as in Football, though not to the same degree, has S. H. S. had its most successful season. With a score of 16 games won out of 23 played and a total of 787 points against their opponents' 422, a record has been established which outclasses even that of last year's veteran team. The schedule this year has been most severe, and one that called for continuous and determined work on the part of the team, but one which they did not falter to meet, and battle with for victory. Team work, as in other sports, has been the main factor in their success, and the use of combination plays has many times won a game, where individual work would have failed. But there is always a higher notch to achieve, and, though a victorious aggregation, this year's team was not perfect. There seemed to be a feeling of nervousness and bewilderment among the players when on an unfamiliar floor and sometimes a game was dropped which was within the possibilities of a victory. However, too much cold water is undeserved, as the record is without doubt the best yet and is a fine incentive to our future ball tossers. Captain Cunliffe led his team in scoring with a record of 116 field goals and 41 fouls out of 23 games played; Messer was a close second with 100 field goals and 27 fouls, and Scott third with 72 goals and 2 fouls, in the same number of games. The other players were much farther behind, Chisholm getting 27 goals and no fouls in 23 games, Billings 21 goals in 11 games, Nash 13 goals in 11 games, Mather 10 in 6 games, and Tifft not scoring at all in the 3 games in which he played.

The team: 1. f., Cunliffe (Capt.); r. f., Scott, Tifft; c., Chisholm; l. b., Messer; r. b., Nash, Billings, Mather.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

GIRLS'

BASKETBALL

CAPTAIN SAMBLE.

Manager, Miss Ethel Seerley, '06.

Another almost sensational record! The Girls' Basketball team this year, though delayed in their schedule, met and defeated some of the fastest teams in Western Massachusetts and closed the season with a score of 34 points against their opponents' 11. This record was established through perseverance in misfortune and excellent playing in the games. All but two of the girls were new players but this was soon overcome by the fact that a team was produced which showed itself superior to any team in the vicinity. Their record stands 4 games won out of 5 played, the one lost being due to the fact that the floor in Pittsfield was so slippery that the game resembled a novice roller skate outing and the ball went everywhere but the right place. Of the players Miss Colton led in scoring, with 18 points, and was a mainstay of the team. Miss Seerley as forward played a fine game, her ability to dodge her taller opponents enabling her to score the remaining 16 points and also to keep the ball in Springfield's possession a great deal of the time. Miss Samble, the captain, Miss Piper, Miss Dexter, and Miss Bangs, the other members of the team, had no share in scoring, yet it was to their efficient blocking and passing that many victories were due.

The line up was as follows: 1. f., Miss Ethel Seerley; r. f., Miss Grace Colton; c., Miss Amy Piper; l. c., Miss Jessie Dexter; l. g., Miss Carolyn Samble (Capt.); r. g., Miss Ethel Bangs.

HOCKEY TEAM

HOCKEY

Manager, JOHN C. REED, '06.

CAPTAIN TIFFT.

While the glad hand is being offered to the members of our teams just mentioned, let us not forget to pass a hearty handshake to those of our, not less glorious, Hockey Team. This year seems to have been one of exceptionally fine records, and, while not exactly a Fourth of July affair, that of the Hockey Team can certainly be placed in this class.

Resulting in a victory for S. H. S. the first game was the forerunner of others just as full of the determination to win, which, with a little of the "slap, bang" spirit, usually won it or tied the score and saved a lost game. Of course there were off days, when the ice was poor and skates would come off, forcing our boys to experience defeat, but one can easily say that four of such can be truthfully called "few."

The schedule was "exceedingly difficult," so that the team's record of three games won, three tied, and only four lost is cause for congratulation. Of these games perhaps the hardest were those with Williston, and the Hartford and Pomfret High Schools, only one of them being a defeat for S. H. S. A serious weakness in the line up during the season was that caused through the loss of Manager Reed, who played left wing, and Earle C. Milliken, who played right wing. All the fellows played a star game from start to finish, using combinations and backing each other up in a manner which often won them a seemingly impossible goal. In Neal, Peirce, Mather, and Reed, no better men could be found for a rush, while in blocking, Fay, Richards, and Captain Tifft were difficulties that were always in the way of an opponent's shot.

May next year's team give as good a cause for self satisfaction.

The line up: g., Tifft (Capt.); p., Fay; c. p., Richards; r., Neal, Baker; r. w., Milliken, Mather; c., Peirce; 1. w., Reed. The summary of games is as follows:—

FENCING

Manager, JOHN WILBUR, '07.

CAPTAIN LANGE.

Work with the foils progressed rapidly in the school during the past year, there being many candidates for our team. As a result a good team was picked and the exhibition given this season has been highly creditable. Though weaker than last year's champion team, the boys have defeated opponents much older and much more experienced than themselves. Lange, as captain, distinguished himself as usual, and his graduating will greatly affect the team of next year. Ellis and J. Wilbur promise much as a nucleus for next year's team, while W. Wilbur and Kendrick will probably be also on the floor. A good showing was made by the team in the victory over the Training School, though they were less fortunate in their other bouts. The summary and schedule are as follows:—

FENCING TEAM

BASEBALL

Manager, Guerdon N. Messer, 'o6.

CAPTAIN GRAVES.

Perhaps this account should begin with the clause, "Sacred to the Memory of—." At any rate the baseball team seems to be dead and almost buried under a heap of defeats. Its beginning was full of hope and vim but gradually, as the shades of the darkness of costly errors, attacks of what might be called "diamond" fright, and a tendency to go to pieces in bunches, came over the games, the team sank until a team it was only in name. But enough of "gloom."

There was good material enough on the squad from which to drill as fine a team as ever wore the "S"; both infield and outfield was made up of men who should have done better than they did. Perhaps it was lack of practice or inability to play a team game or perhaps it was something else. At any rate defeat should have stimulated and spurred them on to victory instead of causing the poor exhibition of ball which they put up at times. Capt. Graves at third, Doubleday at second, and Giles on the initial bag, were three well picked men, and with Cunliffe, Mather, Richards, and Samble should have caused the downfall of any opposing team. In the box particularly S. H. S. was crippled, Crowther being disabled nearly all of the season, Messer being very erratic and careless of base runners, and Carleton having much against him because of his newness at the business. Fay at catch was altogether too liable to allow runners to steal or to come home on a pitched ball and was often responsible for tallies which lost games. Summed up it is a sad tale and the less said about it the better.

INDOOR TRACK TEAM

TRACK

Manager, ARTHUR L. BESSE, '05.

CAPTAIN STOCK.

With the preparations for the Baseball Team and Crew, come also those for the Track Team. These are earlier even than the others, as candidates for the squad begin indoor practice sometimes in the fall. Preliminary to the Indoor Meet at the Training School on March 18, there were some doubts as to whether S. H. S. could produce a championship team this season, but all these doubts were cast aside, when, in the struggle between our squad, composed mainly of inexperienced members, and the squads from other schools, composed of veterans in the events, the S. H. S. boys won the meet and banner in splendid style.

So there is no reason why our Track Team this year should not equal last year's crack athletes and come home from Middletown and Amherst with jubilant hearts, much noise of metal and hoarse voices. Though but a very few are left of the star 1904 squad, the team is fortunate in having Stock, Besse, and Neal with them this year, who will help coach the "awkward" squad into condition for the meets. So we're all looking forward to victories galore, and, with the same kind of a crowd on the field "doing things," as only a Springfield crowd can do them, when the last faint echoes of the last glad song die away in the distance, let us be able to "Leave the warm precincts of the cheerful day, Nor cast one longing, ling'ring look behind."

CREW

Manager, HENRY A. BIDWELL, '05.

CAPTAIN ROBBINS.

The Crew this season is making fine progress and expects to capture several races with other local crews this season. Last year there were two squads and in the Fourth of July races both covered themselves with glory.

Practice has been kept up nearly every pleasant school day, and the men are in prime condition. It is hoped to be able to secure races with several outside schools and also to bring the Yale Freshmen here again. Here's hoping for a glorious and successful season!

At the Annual Meet of the New England Interscholastic Athletic Association, held at Soldiers' Field, Cambridge, Saturday, June 4, 1904, Lawrence Taylor, '04, of S. H. S., won the half-mile run from a field of twenty-two competitors, in the record time of 2.02 3-5, which reduced the school record by 3 seconds. He also tied for third and fourth places in the pole vault with three others, winning an additional 3-4 of a point. This made his total 5 3-4 points. In the draw-off for the medal in the pole vault Taylor's luck was with him, and one more was added to his collection. Taylor is probably the best all-round athlete S. H. S. has ever had, or may hope to have, and his loss will be greatly felt on the team this year. His individual scores last year were: Wesleyan Meet, 13; Cambridge Meet, 5 3-4; Amherst Meet, 15.

LUNCH ROOM

BACK, BACK, BACK TO BALTIMORE

A PARODY—SUNG IN THE GLEE CLUB MINSTREL SHOW, APRIL 18, 1905.

Ι.

Chilly winds blow, a coon from a show
Down by the river bank sitting in woe,
Gloomy and drear, he's roosting near
Right where dat new drawbridge is to appear.
He is de last, all coons go past,
Poli's and Nelson's big shows am too fast,
So he will wait, out dere so late,
For a New York, New Haven, and Hartford freight.

CHORUS

He's going back, back, back to Baltimore
Just 'cause he don't want Holyoke right next door,
Back till the new city hall is built,
Till Ludlow water don't look like milk
And Court Square is extended to de shore.
He'll neber stop at de Cooley House no more,
He'll neber watch dem Nelson girls galore,
For Marshal Stebbins' poster law
Will break up ebery dog gone show
And they'll go back to Baltimore.

II.

Springfield's a town of great renown,
Things of distinction can easy be found.
Here the police raid the Chinese
And let all the 'Melican mans gamble in peace.
Coasting they stop at nine by the clock,
After dark they won't let you walk in Forest Park.
A man said last fall
That the best thing of all
Was the way that the "monk" finished up City Hall.

CHORUS

And he went back, back, back to Baltimore For he'd seen Cassie Chadwick there before, Of Carnegie to make a fool Or Rockefeller to found a school And raise the price of kerosene once more. They say Round Hill should be a city core, Before they change there'll be an awful roar, And when the people, young and old, Am using Brown's Quick Fire Charcoal We'll all go back to Baltimore.

COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.

(Through the courtesy of the Registrar we are able to print these examination papers. We do so as we hope by them to forewarn those who are not preparing for a higher institution.)

English.

Time-37 hours. (Answer any five questions.)

- 1. Compare the ante-mortem stanzas of "Davy" Jones with Pirnie's ('07) lyrics.
- 2. Who was the progenitor of Bishop?
- 3. Expatiate on the merits of the Bucolic trimeters of Adam and the Diabolic dameters of Brigham Young.
- 4. Which is the more pathetic, the Sanskrit of Browning or the rhythmic verse of Miss Josephine Smith ('05)?
- 5. Mention four authors who flourished during the silver age of Pecousic, and state reasons for believing that Sappho was one of their number.

History.

Time—Over night.

(Those who pass will not be allowed to continue the course.)

- 1. Define the boundary of S. H. S., at recess.
- 2. Give the date of the conception of E. Pluribus Union, also of Sic Semper Rannenberg ('07).
- 3. Give a history of the world to 1920.
- 4. Draw a historical parallel between Alexander and Giles ('06).

Geometry.

Time-4 hours 65 minutes ½ second. (Omit these questions.)

- 1. Let a be an arm, inscribing a circle c, about a waist w. Prove by experiment that the distance between c and w approaches zero as a limit.
  - 2. Give reasons for supposing that Savonarola drew his last breath at an angle of 45 degrees.
- 3. Show that when an S. H. S. bun is thrown at Ball ('07) and strikes Blake ('07), the angle of incidence formed is equal to the angle of reflection.

Latin.

Time—to burn.

- 1. Give specimen recitation of Tifft.
- 2. Compare the religious views of Ovid and Royce ('07).
- 3. Write from memory an exact translation of Cæsar.

Chemistry.

- I. Wear your cuffs back-end-towards.
- 2. Use good English when your retort explodes.
- 3. State reasons why you do not wish to continue this course.

Rhetoric.

- 1. Write for two hours on Kipling and Hopkins ('07).
- 2. Suggest methods (punctuate carefully) of convicting lunch counter thieves.
- 3. Write for two hours on Hopkins ('07) and Kipling.

Note.—When examinations are finished kindly fold papers three times and mail to Prof. Swanson. Do not send stamps. They will not be needed. Also, carefully replace all "Aids to Students" on the bottom shelf in the library.

AN EXPLANATION

The Staff has received communications from many of its readers expressing the hope that individual cuts and records of the boys in the Senior class would appear in our columns, and we wish to explain their absence.

The Staff originated the idea, this year, and had cuts of the boys in the class already made, when we discovered to our horror that, in order to suit our readers, complete life histories (to date) of those celebrities would also have to be printed. Though great the labor we undertook the task, but had to give it up when Edgerton's name was reached. This was our Waterloo; for, much as we prized the idea, we could not allow articles of such a sensational nature to appear within our covers. So we abandoned the scheme and presented the cuts to the Kappa Annual.

ELEGY WRITTEN ON A FLUNKER. (By-the-yard)

(With apologies to Gray.)

The bell rings loud to stop the children's play,
The classes wind to their respective rooms,
Swanson to his office makes his way,
And contemplates the cobwebs on his brooms.

Now fades to naught the busy whisper's sound And all the rooms in solemn stillness hold, Save when some scholar has an answer found Or a teacher finds occasion oft to scold.

Save that from yonder much observed seat

The moping flunker to his chum complains,
Of such as, like the teacher, "can't be beat,"

For giving D's and E's, whate'er his pains.

Beneath those rugged brows by weary hands upstayed,
While heaves his breast with many a mumbling sigh,
Each in his little cell forever laid,
The facts of knowledge there shall ever lie.

The breezy call of teacher who can hear

The flunker making up his loss of sleep,

His neighbor's nudge or whispered accents in his ear

No more shall rouse him to stand up and speak.

THE EPITAPH

Here rests his head upon his elbow bent,
A youth to A's and B's as yet unknown;
A letter to his parents has been sent
And soon some shop will claim him for her own.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Q. Carter

announce the marriage of their daughter

Earle-ina Kendall

to

Mr. Frank Day Bishop

of

Springfield, Mass.

(Clipping from Naily Dews.)

"Miss Carter was very prettily dressed in a pink organdie trimmed with mousseline de soup. But, of course, Miss Carter is always pretty if decked out only in her pretty smiles and winning weighs."

SEQUEL TO THE ARTICLE ON THE BASEBALL TEAM

A S there has been a decided change for the better in the make-up and the playing of our nine, we wish, out of respect for the members of the team, to add this little N. B. to our article on that subject. Not that we wish to, in any way, retract the statements made in it, for we do not, as the team, at that time, deserved all that was given them and perhaps a little more.

But, as if to illustrate the saying, "He laughs best who laughs last," the squad was given a shaking up, and, as a result, began a new era in their history by defeating Monson 12 to 1. This game and the one a little later with Holyoke High were easy victories for S. H. S., showing, as we stated, that what was needed was not better men, but better team work as a whole. So, while we deplore the defeats we commend the victories, and perhaps we cannot close this sequel better than with this couplet,—

"While the blackest clouds foretell the storm, Night's darkest hours precede the dawn."
